Personal Touch Story

Chase Webb - Chef

Chase Webb started at Legacy House in September of 2017.

Though a lot of his job entails preparing food in the kitchen, he manages to interact with the residents on a frequent basis and makes them feel special. A resident remarked to us that not only is the food that Chase prepares wonderful, but he makes each plate look very nice.

He is always quick to get things plated, so residents get their meals in a timely manner, which each resident enjoys! He is very personable and will come through the dining room and interact with the residents. A resident has also remarked how Chase always makes guests of our residents feel so welcome and at ease! A few weeks ago, Chase heard a resident say that she was sad that she couldn't read any more. Chase planned a time to come in to read to her. He found a book she liked, and they have read that together, with Chase coming in on his own time. This resident truly appreciates him not just sympathizing with her, but actually taking the time to read with her. We appreciate all that Chase does to make our residents happy!

Resident of the Month - Joyce Parkinson

Joyce Keller was born in 1928 in Preston, Idaho. She grew up in Mink Creek and Preston. Joyce met Spencer Parkinson, who grew up in Franklin, while in her teens, and their first date was on Halloween in 1944. Joyce was Preston Rodeo Queen in 1945. She was selected as USU ROTC Sponsor Corps Colonel and Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl. Joyce and Spencer were married on June 27th, 1949, in the Logan Temple. She taught high school home economics in Salt Lake City for one year, then was a housewife, raising her family for several decades. Spencer was in the Navy, so they lived in nine different cities, most in the U.S., but one in Guam! Joyce and Spencer served a mission in Manaus, Brazil (as medical missionaries), then were transferred to British Columbia, Canada (proselyting). Joyce and Spencer had 4 boys and 3 girls. Joyce now has 30 grandchildren, 42 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild. She loves to be with her family. Joyce's hobbies have included playing the piano and organ, reading, traveling, etiquette, baking, and canning. We love having Joyce at Legacy House!
