Personal Touch Story

Caitlyn Barnett - Activities Assistant

Caitlyn worked here as a dining room server, then returned to Legacy House last November as an Activities Assistant! Caitlyn has a great work ethic. She is always busy around our building. When she is not facilitating activities or providing transportation, she is visiting with residents or helping out. Caitlyn is very supportive to co-workers, stepping in whenever help is needed, including covering shifts when the activity staff is short-handed. All the residents love when Caitlyn is working, and you can tell she enjoys being here, too! She is constantly kind and caring when interacting with each resident. On one occasion, a resident had a late pickup from an appointment after hours, and needed the bus. Caitlyn came back in on her own time, not even clocking in, to bring her back. She just wanted to help out, and the resident was so appreciative of her efforts. We recently had our Valentine's Dance. Caitlyn and her husband came in, both dressed up! They danced the night away with our residents and made it enjoyable for all. We appreciate the care Caitlyn provides for our residents!

Resident of the Month - Richard Eames

Richard Eames was born and raised in Logan, and helped on his grandfather's farm. Richard met Sharell when she moved into his ward during high school. They dated while Richard was studying education at USU, and again when he returned from an LDS mission to Western Canada, then were married! They then spent 2 years in Los Angeles, California, while Richard was a radar officer for the Army. They moved back to Logan, where Richard taught elementary school for 31 years! He also drove a truck for Parsons during the summers for 28 years, and butchered part-time (had done during college). Richard has always enjoyed fishing and hunting. He got a jeep in college and took it for many hunting trips and Saturday rides in the mountains. Richard also refereed for the rec center and church basketball games. He served in many LDS church callings, including as a bishop for a USU married student ward. Richard and Sharell had three children. The surviving two are a daughter in Phoenix and a son in River Heights. He has 4 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren. Richard is an amazing guy!
