Personal Touch Story

Sadie Gifford - Medication Technician

Sadie Gifford started working at Legacy House in March of 2018 as a C.N.A. She later certified as a Medication Technician, and started this January as our full-time day Med-Tech. Being here very consistently means Sadie pays close attention to our residents and makes sure that things run very smoothly. She is good at noticing details and taking care of things before problems may arise. Sadie also takes the time to make sure things are in order. She has cleaned through closets and other areas, making sure things are orderly and easy to find. Sadie takes the time to become friends with our residents. She jokes around and has fun with each one. There are a few residents she is especially close to, and you can see her chatting with them at meals if she has a few minutes in between her duties. There is one resident whom Sadie comes to visit on her days off. They enjoy watching television together or just talking. Just recently, she took this resident out shopping on her own time. Sadie even plans to take this resident to her family's Easter party! This resident truly appreciates the friendship she has with Sadie! We are glad to have Sadie as part of our Legacy team!

Residents of the Month: Elmer and Shirley Duncan

Elmer Duncan was born and raised in Meadow, Utah. Shirley was born in McGill, Nevada and raised in Fillmore, Utah. Elmer went on a mission to the North Central States, then served as a Sergeant in the army for 2 years. After he returned, Elmer and Shirley met, dated, and were eventually married! Both Elmer and Shirley began their schooling at BAC in Cedar City (now SUU), then completed school in Logan. Shirley studied homemaking and Elmer studied range management. Shirley taught school for 5 years, home economics then elementary school. Elmer worked for 40 years for the bureau of land management. The Duncans lived in Richfield; Vernal; Buffalo, Wyoming; and lastly in Moab. Both Shirley and Elmer have had many callings in the church, from primary, to Relief Society and Branch Presidents. They served a mission in South Dakota and helped for 10 years in the Monticello temple. Elmer enjoyed the outdoors, doing things like fishing and hunting. Shirley enjoyed being a homemaker, especially sewing clothes. Elmer and Shirley have one son, two daughters, 15 grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren. We sure enjoy having the Duncans at Legacy!
